SECRET COCKTAIL

In my garden, far more happens than what meets the eye.

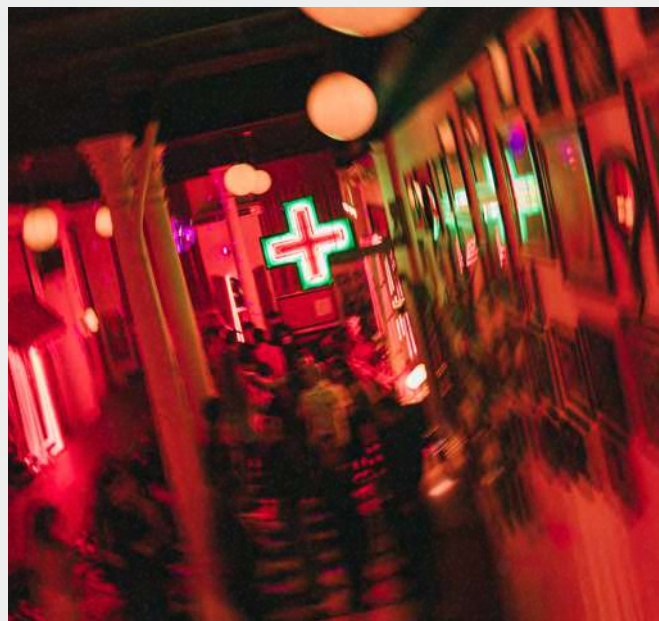

Among flowers that exist nowhere else, disappearing teacups, and clocks that run backward, I keep a secret that only those who look with curiosity can uncover.

Just next door —yes, so close you can almost hear the clinking of its formulas— hides Pharmacy, my secret cocktail bar.

A space inspired by old apothecaries, where vintage aesthetics blend with a modern, soulful cocktail craft. There, bartenders in white coats, laboratory jars, neon lights, and nighttime music create an immersive atmosphere that turns every visit into a unique sensory experience.

At Pharmacy, nothing is accidental: every cocktail is a recipe, every recipe a state of mind, and every state of mind... a remedy waiting to be cured.

From formulas inspired by great medical discoveries to cures for heartbreak, existential troubles, or simply nighttime ailments, every sip has a purpose.

“One dose is never enough”

They say around here
—and you’ll see it written in red on the walls—
that “one dose is never enough.”

And believe me, it’s true.
The side effects are desirable, the atmosphere shifts as the night goes on, and every corner has its own “treatment.”

“So if you’re reading these lines inside my menu, consider it a sign.”

Ask our staff about Pharmacy.
They’ll show you the secret passage that connects my world to theirs. Step inside, let yourself go, and take your first nighttime remedy.
But remember...

at Pharmacy, one dose is never enough.

What a STRANGE WORLD WE LIVE IN!
